RULE 4. General Division Administrative Judge

In the event the judge elected Presiding Judge pursuant to Local Rule 3(A) is a judge of the General Division, that judge may also be the Administrative Judge of the General Division required by Sup. R. 4.10 promulgated by the Supreme Court of Ohio.

The Administrative Judge of the General Division shall be elected by majority vote of the judges of the General Division, consistent with the Rules of Superintendence. The term of office shall be for one calendar year and begin on January 1st of the year immediately following the designation or election of the administrative judge.

An administrative judge may serve consecutive terms.

Pursuant to Sup. R. 4.14, the Administrative Judge shall be provided the option to receive a docket reduction of up to 15% across civil and criminal dockets.
